

My Dear Dearest:-

I have not been in the mood of writing today, at all, and have made a very poor out of it, but if you knew, every thing I do,
possibly you would excuse me.
I ought to write about seven letters tonight
but do not think I feel well enough to sit up longer.

As ever,

Lillian.

Monday, Night.